

Professional Biography Anita Clark

Anita Clark is a California licensed Health and Life Insurance Agent. She is experienced in and authorized to provide senior health insurance, including Medicare Supplements, Part D and Medicare Advantage. She also specializes in Long-Term Care Insurance, a complicated and constantly changing product. Her other fields of expertise and products for any age include Life Insurance, Dental Insurance, Disability Insurance and Annuities.

Anita is well acquainted with the local city, county and federal resources available in all areas of senior care. She is also in constant contact with senior agencies, facilities and home care providers.

Anita is a member of and attends conferences and meetings in several professional organizations, such as the Senior Resource Alliance and the American Association of Long-Term Care Insurance. She has been the guest speaker at local senior events and can also be heard on various radio talk shows.

Anita decided to specialize in senior health care after experiencing the results of her own parent's health crisis regarding the lack of available help during her father's illness. Because of her experience with the devastating financial, physical and emotional effects the lack of planning can bring to a family, Anita educates and helps others understand the risks. She found the lack of planning doesn't just affect individuals; it affects all members of a family.

Anita resides in Orange County, but also covers Southern Los Angeles and the Inland Empire.
