

Professional Biography Jacque Schweppe

Jacque Schweppe is the founder of “Alzheimer’s Placement Specialists,” an agency that locates as suitable placement for seniors who can no longer remain in their homes.

Her passion for those with Alzheimer’s and related disorders began twenty-five years ago when she worked at the Lutheran Homes and began her quest to provide quality and appropriate care for those with dementia. Establishing some of the first Alzheimer’s units and facilities in Orange County and Functioning as Executive Director of assisted living for eighteen years, Jacque has provided invaluable knowledge in helping families through this time of crisis.

Prior to the twenty five years spent in senior care and housing, Jacque worked seven years with the Multiple Sclerosis Association in New Jersey and three years with the Easter Seal Society in Puerto Rico.

Jacque has volunteered nineteen years for the Alzheimer’s Association of Orange County in many capacities. She also facilitates for care-giver support groups, serves on the Education Committee and the Patient Family Services Committee. She also serves as chairman of the Interfaith Outreach committee.